

IN MEMORIAM

To the Family of Margaret A. East

This is your Memorial Book. We sincerely hope that it will help to convey our appreciation for the privilege of serving you.

Within the accompanying floral envelope you will find a duplicate record of the floral tributes assembled for convenient reference when mailing thank you cards. Although we have made every effort to insure accuracy and completeness, if there are any errors or necessary additions, please stop in and we shall make the corrections.

Should any member of the family desire a duplicate copy of the Memorial Book, please return your book to us and we shall make up the required number at our cost of $3.50 each.

Sincerely yours,

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Crossing the Bar
Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar...

God hath not promised skies
always blue,

Flower-strewn pathways
all our lives through;

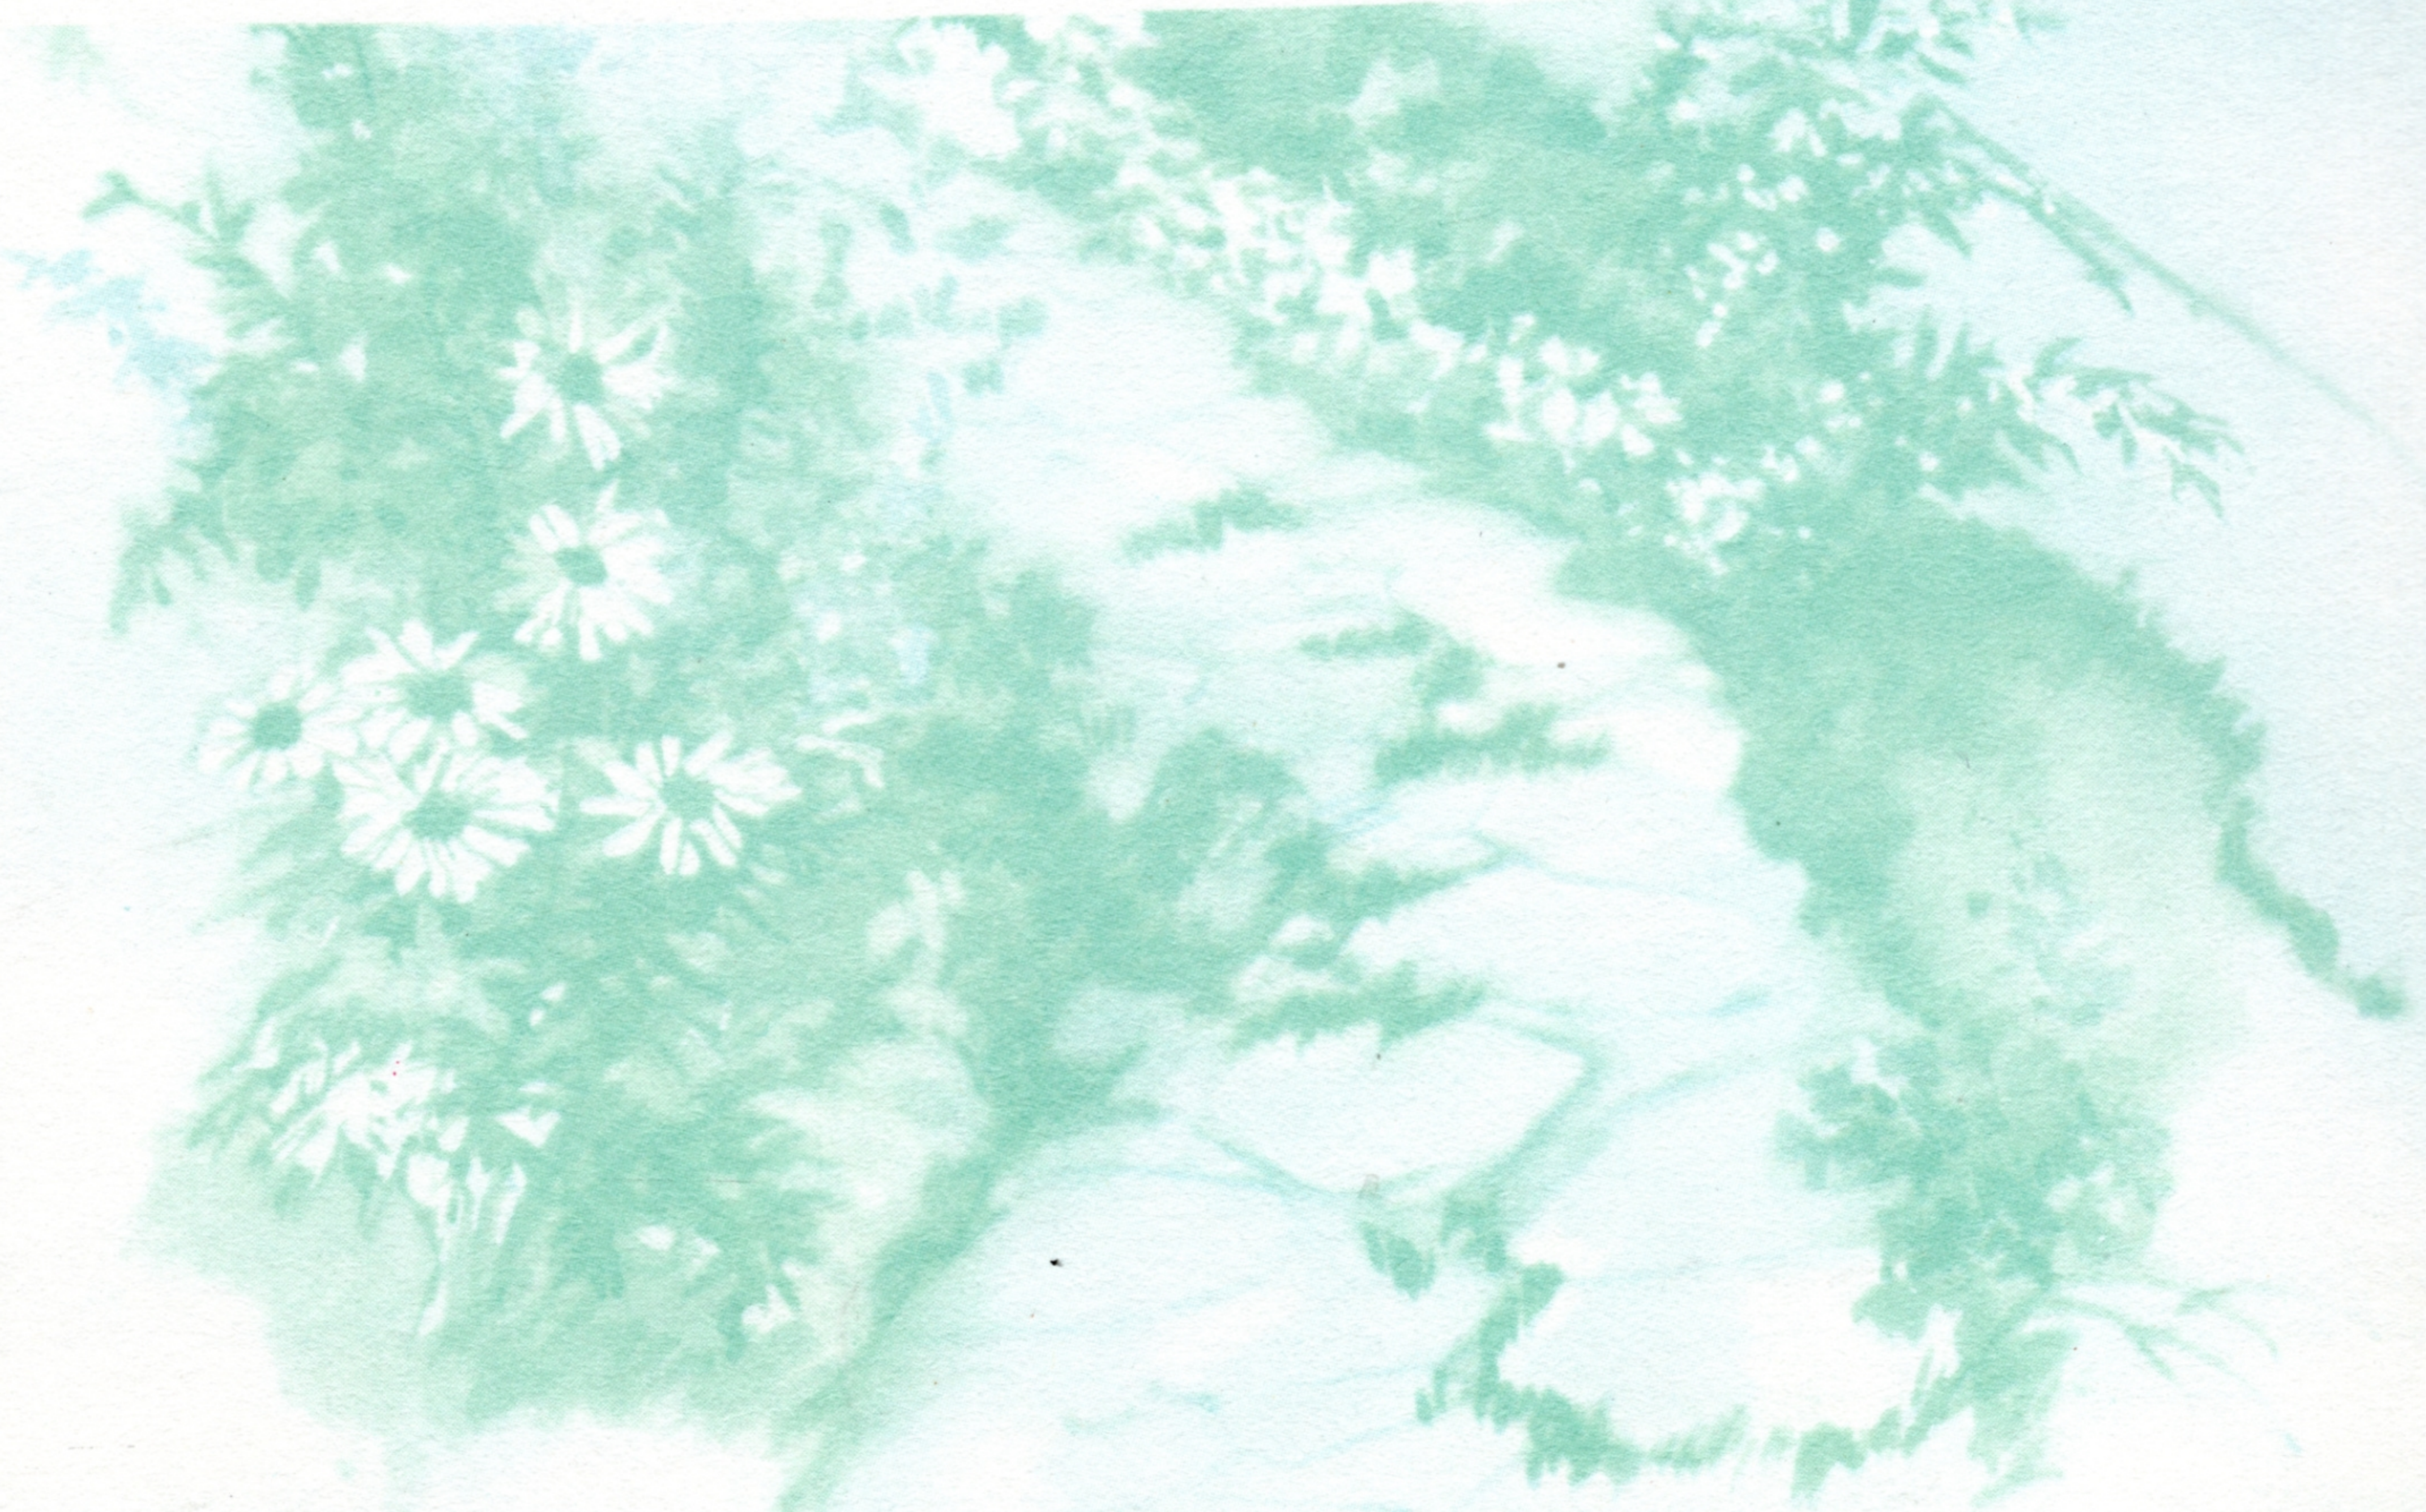

God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.

But God hath promised strength
for the day,

Rest for the labor, light for the way,

Grace for the trials, help from above,

Unfailing sympathy
Undying love...

Transition

So live that when thy summons comes to join

The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm where each shall take

His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed

By an unflinching trust, approach thy grave
Like one who wraps the draperies of his couch

About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

In the Garden
Abide With Me

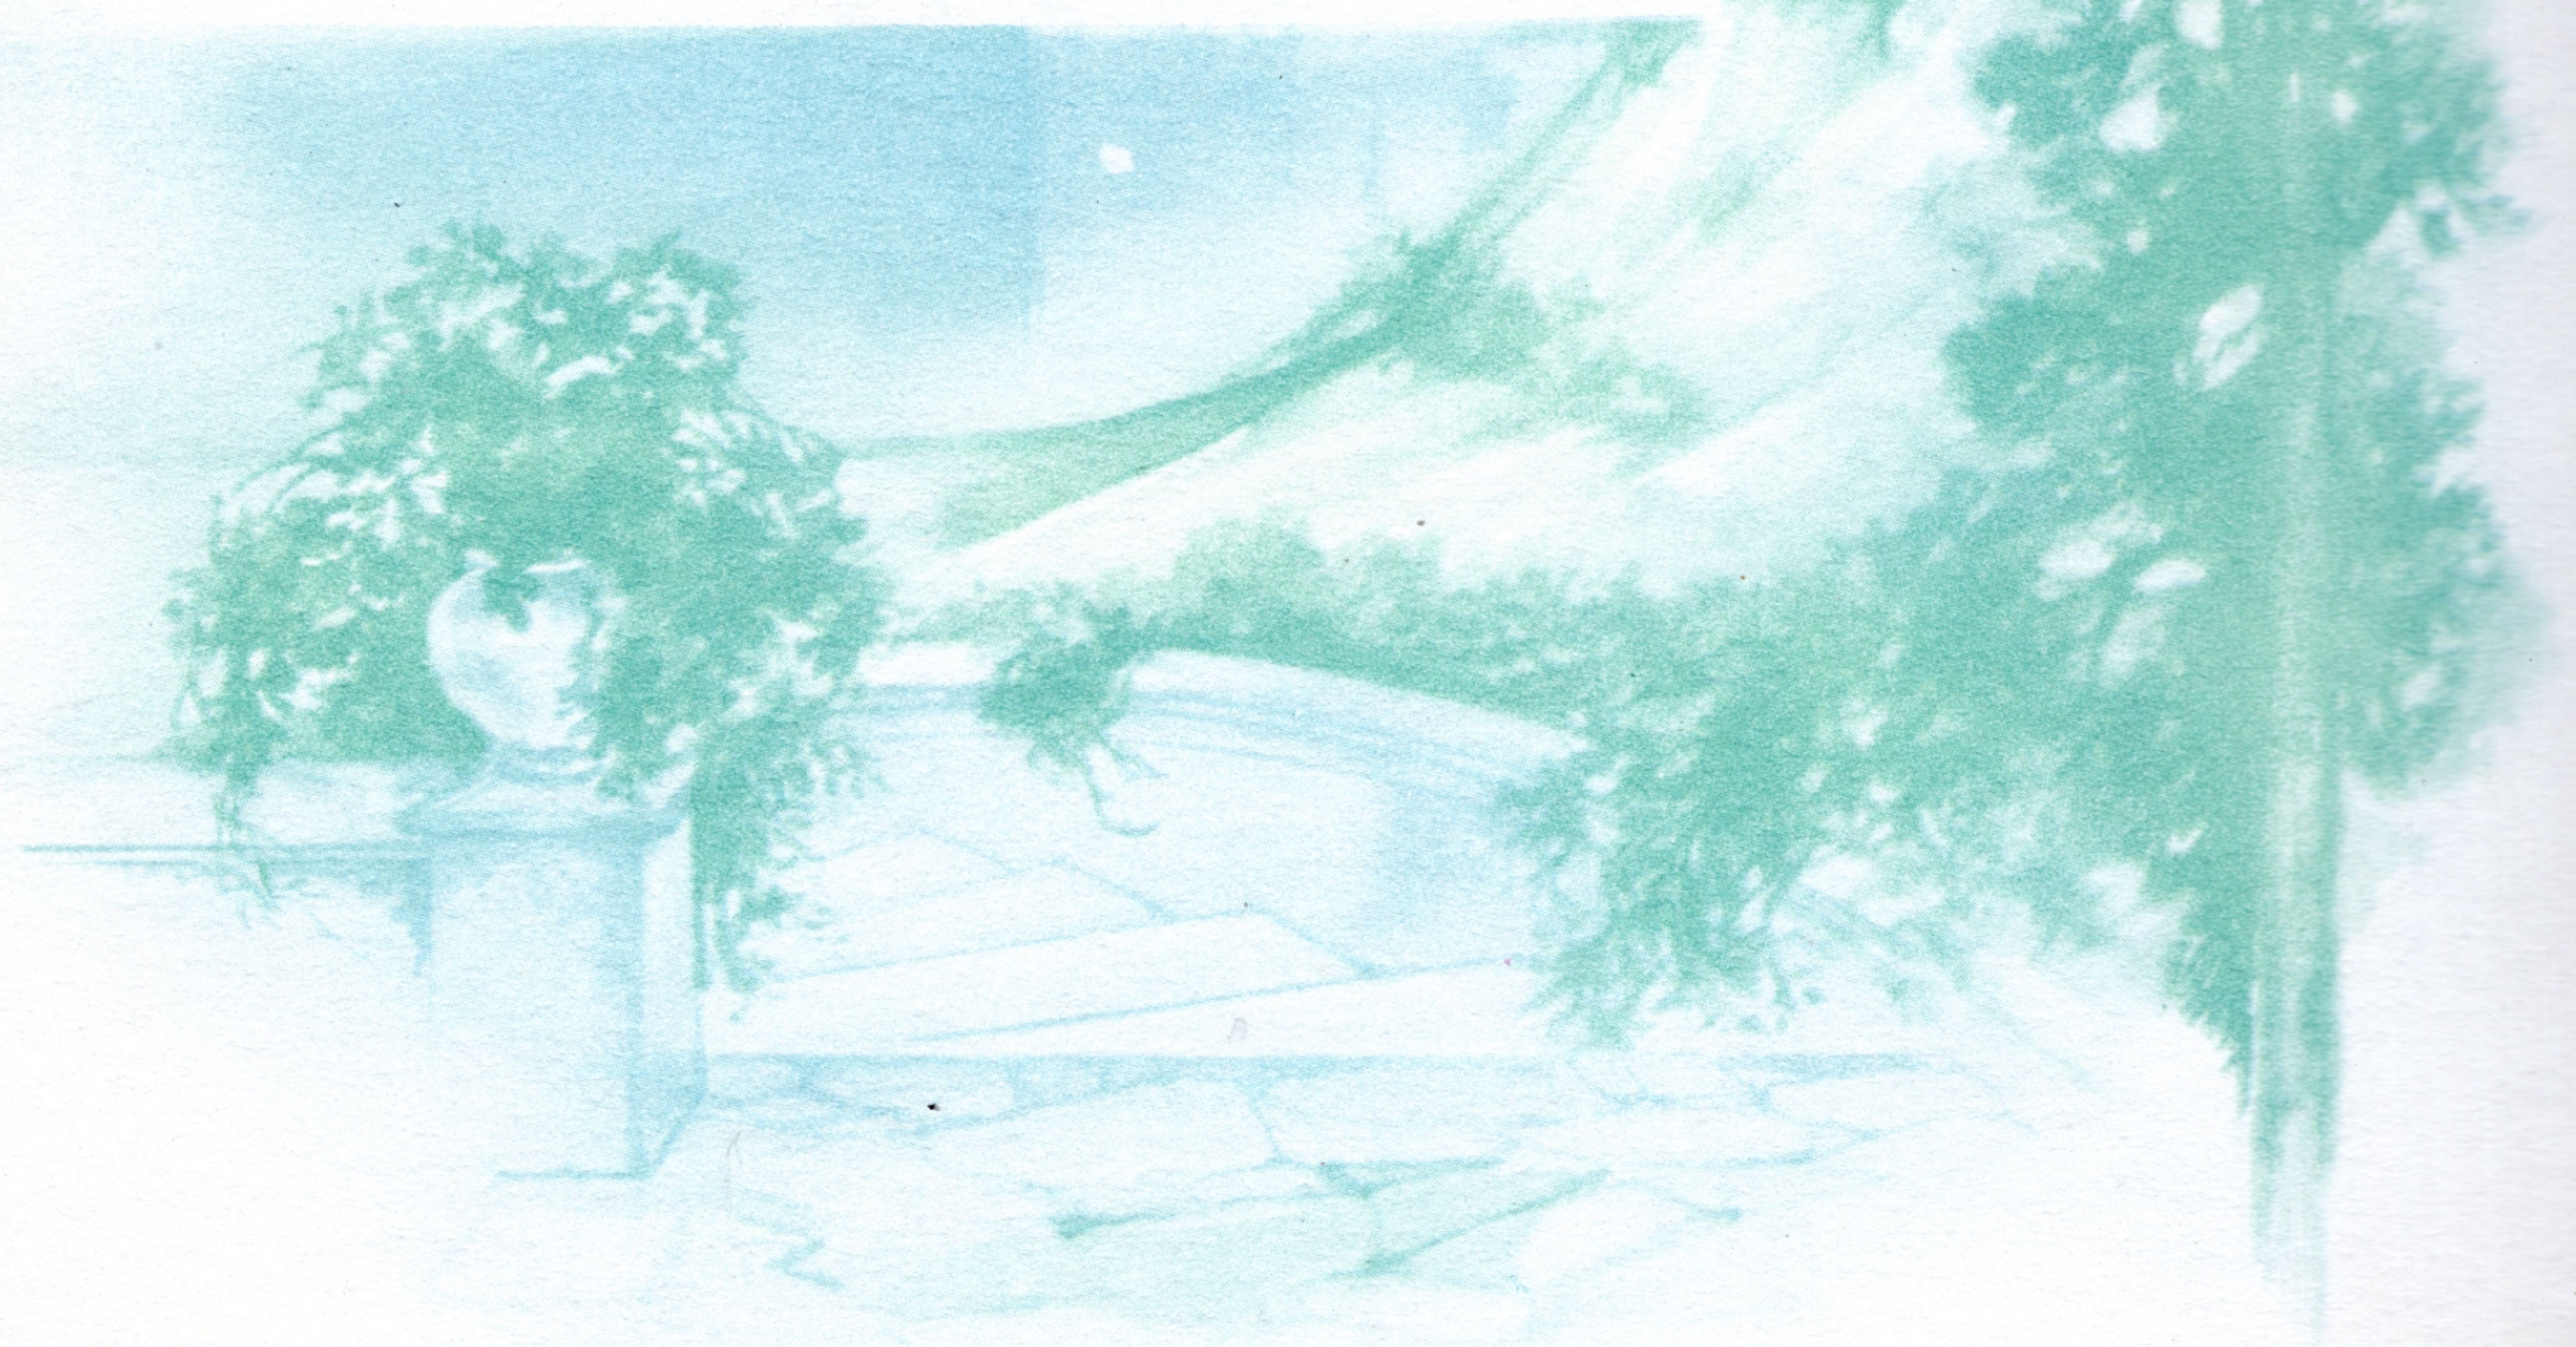

The Eternal Goodness
I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.

And so, beside the silent sea,
I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from Him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care . . . .

. Comfort .

The Power who pities man has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening quest,
But joy shall come with early light.

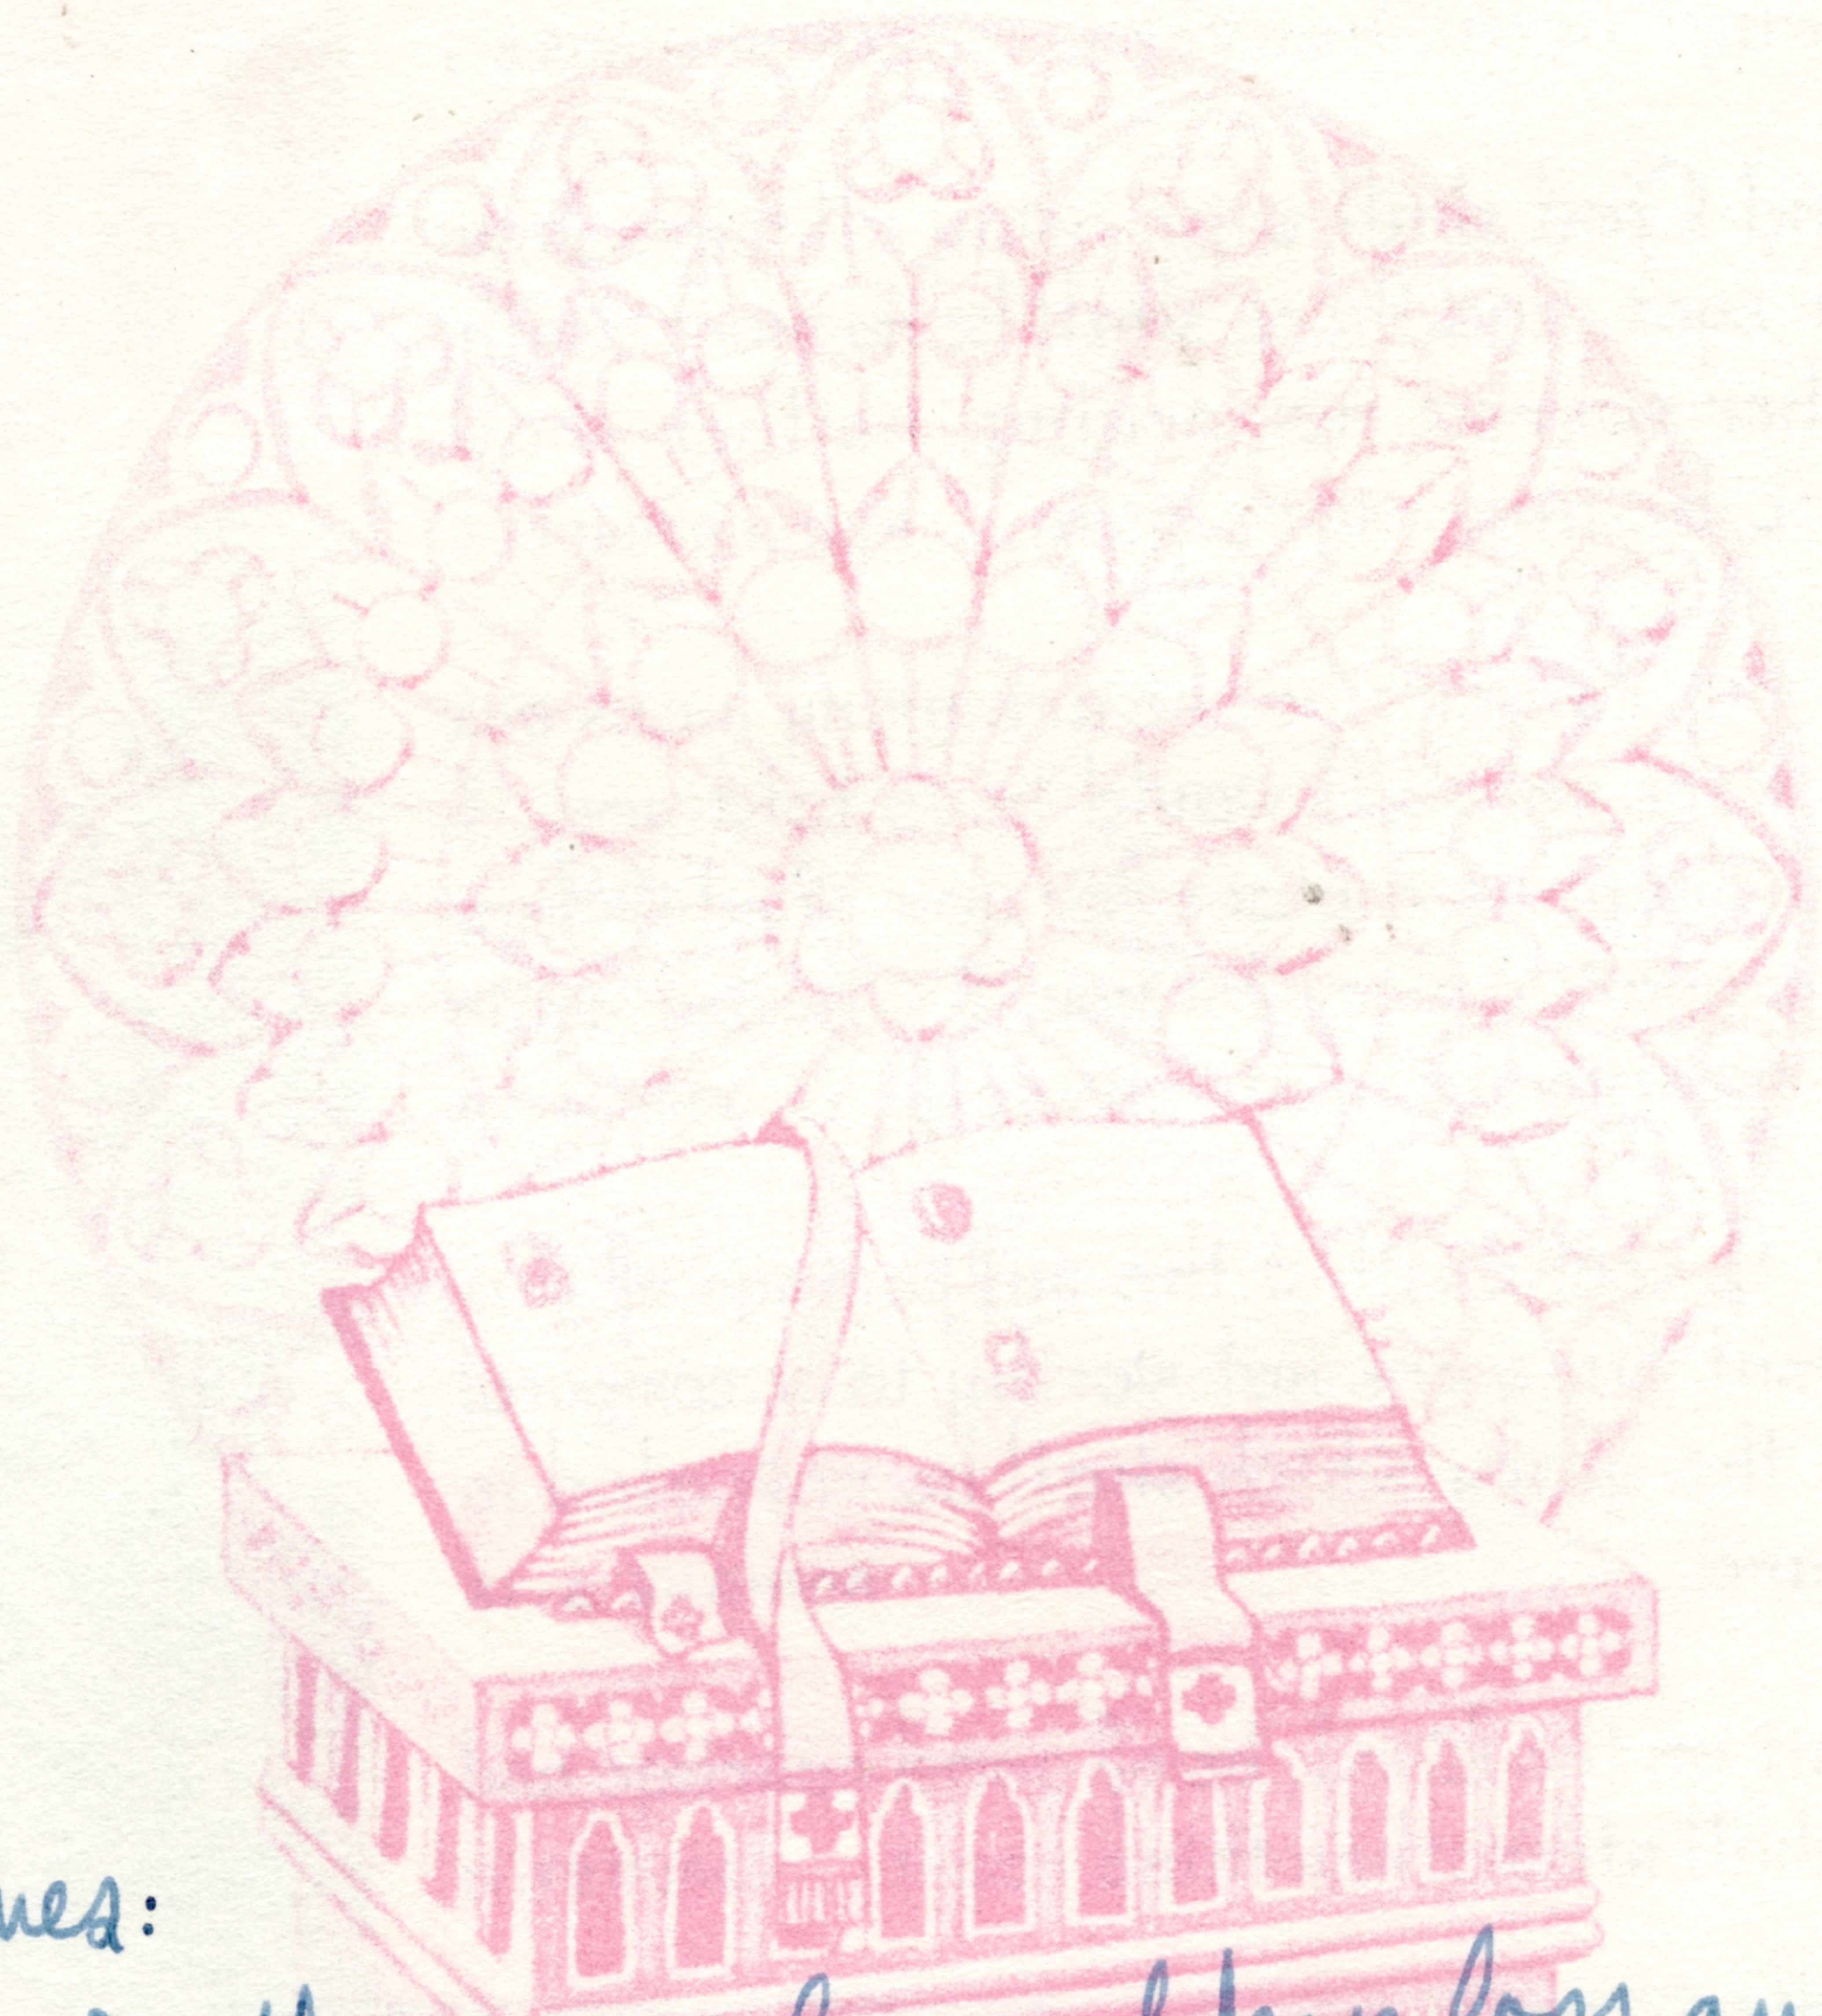

For God hath marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And Heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all His children suffer here.

Sermon Notes

Dear Ones:

In this your hour of deep loss and sorrow,
May He who watches over all,
He who knows the sparrow's fall,
He who bore a lonely cross,
And understands, so well, your loss,
Be with you, and yours, today,
His love sustain you on your way,
And may He give you in your sorrow,
Hope and courage.... for tomorrow.
Sincerely

Rev. Donald D. Weston

For we know that if the earthly house of our tabernacle were dissolved; we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. . . 2 CORINTHIANS 5:1

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. . . REVELATION 21:4

In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself. . . JOHN 14:2,3

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to usward . . . . . ROMANS 8:18

Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen thine heart. . . PSALM 27:14
